Some of these questions may seem very “interview-y”. We just want to try to get to know you a little better. Don’t tell us what you think we want to hear. There are no right or wrong answers, there are simply your answers. Answer in your voice, like we are having a conversation.

Describe your ideal work environment.

Is it better to be perfect and late, or good and on time?

What is your most memorable beer experience?

Have you ever been in a situation in which a team member did not pull their own weight? How did you handle it?

What have you done professionally that you succeed at, but isn't an experience you would like to repeat?

What is there about this opportunity that most excites you?

Tell us about a time you set a goal for yourself that you did not reach. Why were you not able to achieve the goal?

How would you establish your credibility with our current team?

Who was your favorite manager and why?

Why do you want this job?
